SEATTLE MUNICIPAL CODE (SMC) INFORMATION PERTAINING TO THE SEATTLE BUSINESS LICENSE AND TAX

This business license can be renewed online at seattle.gov/self.

LICENSE RESPONSIBILITIES:

Quarterly or Annual business license tax forms must be completed, signed, and filed by the due date, even if no tax is due, and whether or not the forms were received from the Department; SMC 5.55.040(A), (B), (C)

Upon termination of business activity in the City, the licensee shall advise Licensing and Tax Administration (LTA) of the closure of the business license account and file and pay a final tax return within (10) days of the closing date (an expired license does not close the account); SMC 5.55.130(A)

Any person who becomes a successor of an existing business should notify LTA that they are the successor of the business. A successor is liable for the full amount of any taxes owed to the City by the predecessor. For the definition of who is a successor, see SMC 5.30.050(H). Notification starts a six month period in which LTA must ascertain whether the proper amount of tax was paid by the old business; SMC 5.55.130(B)

The Department of Finance and Administrative Services Director or duly authorized agent has the right to enter businesses at reasonable times to conduct inspections and examinations related to licensing, tax requirements, or certain regulated business activities; SMC 5.55.060(C) 1; 5.55.225

Please inform yourself about, and comply with, all license and tax code requirements. Violations of the City license and tax codes are subject to penalties and possible civil or criminal charges; SMC 5.55.220

Certain business activities require regulatory licenses, or require endorsements on the business license, (such as selling used goods, operating a public parking garage, amusement devices, collection of admission fees, installing burglar alarms, operating punchboard or pull tabs, adult entertainment, residential sellers, use of scales or price scanning equipment).
